

SLT's Next Production

Agnes of God

October 15-18 & 22-25, 2015

Written by John Pielmeier
Directed by Eric Bultman

AUDITIONS WILL BE HELD AUGUST 22nd 10:00AM

A court appointed psychiatrist, Dr. Martha Livingstone is summoned to a convent to assess the sanity of a young novitiate who is accused of murdering her newborn. The mother superior is determined to keep Agnes away from the doctor saying that her questions will do more harm than good. This arouses the psychiatrist's suspicions further. Who killed the infant? Who fathered the child? Dr. Livingstone's search for answers forces all three women to re-examine the meaning of faith and the value of love leading to a dramatic, compelling climax.

Cast Notes

Storm Smith - between naps and his ongoing sweet tea stained dissertation he has found time to enjoy the incredible talents of the cast.

Matt Wilt - last appeared at SLT in last spring's The 39 Steps. In his next role, he will begin performing daily at Sumter High in an extended run starting August 17th. As always, he wants to thank both his wife and family for their unending love and support.

David Reed - spent his first 18 years in the hills of northeast Tennessee. He now lives in West Columbia, reads like a fiend, and has spent over 30 years working in radio. If you're an avid patron of SLT, you may recognize David from The 39 Steps, The Odd Couple, and Inherit the Wind. Of the dozens of theaters with which he's worked, SLT is his all-time favorite. The auditorium, staff, crew, actors, and wonderful audiences (You!) make working and playing here a marvelous experience! Relax, laugh, and enjoy the show!

Kelly Melton - considers it an extreme pleasure to take to the SLT stage again after being in Shakespeare Abridged last year and Greater Tuna and Tuna Christmas many years before that. It has been an artistic treat to work with such a supportive director, cast, and crew.. He has been teaching theatre at Sumter High School for the past 18 years and wishes to thank all of his students past and present and ,most importantly, his wife and four kids. You might see Kelly at Dillon Park playing on the new disc golf course there. Come out and join him sometime.

Artist's Statement

From a young age, art has always been my passion. My mother introduced me to art through her Ukrainian Eggs. "Pysanky" is an art of creating intricate designs on eggs, through the use of dye and wax. Throughout my childhood I was always making a mess creating or painting something!

The crazy adventure of Von Mir Art started with a painting I posted to Facebook. The first sale was made & a dream started. My medium of choice is acrylic & my creations are a mix of realism & beauty in nature with a modern twist. Currently I stay busy with custom requested pieces & love the challenge of bringing other's visions to life.

Apart from art; I am a full time RN and love running, traveling & the outdoors. Originally from the mountains of Virginia, I have been local to Sumter for the past 7 years with husband Paul and puppy Leila.

Donors

The Sumter Little Theatre is funded in part by grants from the Sumter County Council, the Junior Welfare League of Sumter and Sumter County Cultural Commission which receives support from the John and Susan Bennett Art Fund of the Coastal Community Foundation of SC, the South Carolina Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts. As always, we are grateful for their continued support.
